JANET LEININGER

We, the junior class of 1956, are happy to dedicate our annual to Mary and Philip Ambos, who have been serving our school for many years.

Mary, our cook, has been with us since 1935. She has offered her services for preparing special activities such as the Awards Banquet and the Jr.-Sr. Banquet. At Christmas, Easter, and Thanksgiving she always serves especially delicious meals.

Philip, our janitor, has been with us since 1928. He has to get up bright and early to come to school to build the fire. He stays here to sweep and clean long after we have gone home.

To you, Mary and Philip, we dedicate this edition of the Ja Ce Hi.

Senior Class History

During the years 1944 to 1956 many important and historical things happened. We feel as if we should take this time to recall some of these important events in the One and Only 1956 Senior Class History of Jackson Center High School.

On September 5, 1944, thirty-six small boys and girls landed in the first grade under the direction of Mrs. Maude Griffith only to discover the new and different ways of school life. They were: Verda Barnes, Bill Baughman, Mark Boyer, Mary Brun, James Buchanan, Roger Case, Jack Davis, David Detrick, William Detrick, Gary Elliott, Jacquelyn Elliott, Gloria Fox, Robert Grubbs, Marilyn Hatch, Rose Hagedorn, Janet Leininger, Jerry Lochard, Hugh Marvin, Thelma Myers, Richard Protsman, Twyla Regula, Delores Russell, Lynn Sailor, Carol Seitz, Mary Sherer, Jean Snider, Larry Steenrod, Eugene Swiger, Jack Tidd, Larry Wenner, Donald Westervelt, and Jerry Zwiebel.

After exploring the first grade where Private-Mrs. Irene Shoemaker and Private-Mrs. Minnie Ellis were our instructors.

Gaining territory and knowledge, we entered into Mrs. Bernadine Heintz's battlefield. Here Pat Hammye from DeGraff joined our battalion.

After struggling through the third grade, we tramped on to the fourth under the direction of Sergeant-Mrs. Crystal Stahler. Hearing of our success, we were joined by Donald Howell, Bill Hutflies, Deryl Oglesbee, Howard Oglesbee, Jim Brown, and Dave Smith. We now had 47 in our army.

With the enemy close behind, we moved on to the fifth grade where Mrs. Bernadine Heintz once more became our commander-in-chief. One event in this class that we all remember is the day we gave our Indian Pow Wow.

Colonel Mabel McGown was over us in the sixth grade. A few pupils dropped out, leaving us 44.

Marching on we came to the seventh grade which was in the new building. Major Margaret Forsythe was our military leader. Those who joined us were Alvin and Calvin Moore, Larry Oliver, and Susie York.

In the eighth grade our navy became so large that it had to be divided. Miss Ulmer had the waves (girls) and Miss Heater had the sailors (boys). Sailors Edward Shady, Jack Brown, and Darrel Symonds joined our fleet and Bill Baughman transferred to Sidney. Twyla Regula, Nancy Heintz, Susie York, and Janet Leininger were junior high cheerleaders this year.

In the freshman year, we were still divided only this year Mr. Cooperrider and Mrs. Fullerton were our overseers. Robert Grubbs, James Buchanan, and Jeanie Snider were on the Scholarship Team this year. Dick Miller, Howard Oglesbee, and Deryl Oglesbee were on the basketball squad. David Detrick and Jack Brown were members of the track team.

Mr. Glen Smith was chief pilot of our air force in the sophomore year. This year we presented the play entitled "The Pampered Darling".

Janet Leininger, Twyla Regula, and Bob Grubbs were on the Scholarship Team. Deryl Oglesbee and Howard Oglesbee, Dick Miller, and David Detrick were members of the basketball squad. Those on the track team were Deryl Oglesbee, Howard Oglesbee, Darrel Symonds, Edward Shady, Jack Brown, Jerry Lochard and David Smith. Twyla Regula was a high school cheerleader and Dick Miller and Janet Leininger were sophomore attendants for a school dance.

The battle nearly over, we reached the junior year only to find we had many plans and maneuvers to yet accomplish. Lieutenant Frederick Gross was our sponsor. This year we planned and sponsored the Junior-Senior Prom. Our theme was "Hawaiian Cruise", which was carried out to the fullest extent. The 1955 school annual was published this year with Janet Leininger as editor and Jeanie Snider as co-editor.

The following boys were on the track team: Jerry Lochard, Jack Brown, Dick Miller, David Detrick and Darrel Symonds. Those on the basketball team were: Dick Miller, Dave Detrick, Darrel Symonds, Jack Brown, Jack Tidd, Larry Steenrod, Jim Brown, and Dick Protsman.

Senior Class History

The Scholarship Team was made up of Twyla Regula, Bob Grubbs, and Bill Hutflied. Twyla Regula was one of the high school cheerleaders. The junior class presented the play, "The More The Merrier", this year also.

Now as we reached the senior year under the direction of General Donald L. Holt, we all know it would be only months until we left this twelve years of hard work and battle. This year we lost Marcia Gross, Roger Case, and Deryl Oglesbee.

Members of the varsity boys' basketball team were: David Detrick, Dick Miller, Jack Brown, Larry Steenrod, and Darrel Symonds. Members of the girls' basketball team were: Janet Leininger, Twyla Regula, Nancy Heintz, and Rose Hagedorn. Jerry Lochard was boys' basketball manager junior and seniors years.

Jeanie Snider was chosen queen of a basketball homecoming and her senior attendant was Twyla Regula. They were escorted by Dick Miller and Dave Detrick.

James Buchanan and Dick Protsman were chosen to take F.F.A. Scholarship tests. Twyla Regula was a high school cheerleader. Janet Leininger was editor of the school paper.

The senior class play was entitled, "Quit Your Kidding", and was given two nights by different casts.

The class officers this year were Dick Miller, president; Jean Snider, vice-president; Janet Leininger, secretary; and Rose Hagedorn, treasurer.

Those who went through all twelve years together were: James Buchanan, David Detrick, Rose Hagedorn, Nancy Lou Heintz, Carolyn Helmlinger, Catherine Kossel, Janet Leininger, Jerry Lochard, Richard Protsman, Twyla Regula, Delores Russell, Lynn Sailor, Carol Seitz, Mary Sherer, Jeanie Snider, Larry Steenrod, Jack Tidd, and Robert Grubbs.

Class Poem

Tonight We Sail, Where Shall We Anchor!

The time has come for us to part,
And sail out on our ways,
But we shall never forget in our hearts,
Our twelve years of happy schooldays.

Yes, here we are, at the end, on the shore,
Considering our motto so true,
"Tonight We Sail, Where Shall We Anchor!"
And looking out into the blue.

And here we wonder, as we stand on the past,
How far does our destiny lie,
Where is this Island of Success
Which we hope to reach by and by?

Our dear old colors of blue and white,
As they stand out from the mast,
Will help to guide us on our way,
With our knowledge and experience of the past.

Then we step into our ship of Courage,
With our flag of Knowledge waving high,
As we cling to our diploma's,
We turn to wave and say good-by.

But when we turn to do this task,
There faces us our past twelve years,
With all our parents, teachers, and classmates,
All our hardships, toils and fears.

And as we look back into these happy scenes,
We can hardly hold our tears,
To think that all of us twenty-seven seniors,
Have cherished together these years.

Our last few words we wish to say,
As our ship moves away from land,
Are "Thanks to you, dear teachers and parents,
Making possible a trip well planned."

Our class as a whole, will miss all of you,
For we love our dear Jackson High
And for now we want to say---So-Long,
But never, never---Good-By.

So bid us farewell as we move out in life,
As you in turn must have taken,
For we are not out at sea, by ourselves all alone,
But together, the world to awaken.

Twyla Regula

Prophecies

Let's imagine that it is ten years from tonight. The senior class of '56 is having a banquet at the Jackson Center High School.

The main topic of conversation at this table is about the rocket to the moon that Bob Grubbs and Bill Hutflied is working on. Bill is also very busy with his duties of chaplain of the United States Senate.

They tell me that Jim Brown has started from the bottom and worked himself up to president of the Goodyear Tire Corporation.

James Buchanan is now designing Thunderbird motors for the Ford Organization.

Dick Protsman is now the owner and manager of the Protsman Homestead.

Lynn Sailor, who is president of the Sailor Greenhouse Corporation, has just been elected mayor of Jackson Center.

Donald Howell has been kept very busy with his clock industry at Jackson Center.

Catherine Kossel is now very happy living on her cattle ranch in Montana.

Mary Sherer has just been advanced to the position of head seamstress for Air Stream Trailers.

Carol Seitz is kept very busy advertising Pontiac cars on television.

Ed Shady is now engaged in missionary work in India.

Jerry Lochard now holds the important position of Governor of Ohio.

Jack Tidd is now president of the Hot Rod Association of Ohio.

Larry Steenrod has obtained the position of president of the National Y F A Organization.

Rose Hagedorn is now the personal secretary to the president of the Ford Corporation.

Jean Snider, Patty Hammye, and Delores Russel have completed their nurses training.

Jean is now head nurse of the Gutman Hospital, but Pat, who is head nurse of the Jackson Center Hospital, is giving her some competition.

Delores has spent the last two years as nurse at the American Embassy in Paris.

Janet Leininger has become editor of the New York Times because of her experience from working on the school paper.

Howard Oglesbee has been kept very busy in Hollywood as an understudy for Tony Curtis.

Twyla Regula is now the postmistress of the Jackson Center Post Office.

Carolyn Helmlinger has now taken on a permanent job of baby sitting.

Darrel Symonds is now the Hot Rod Champion of Ohio.

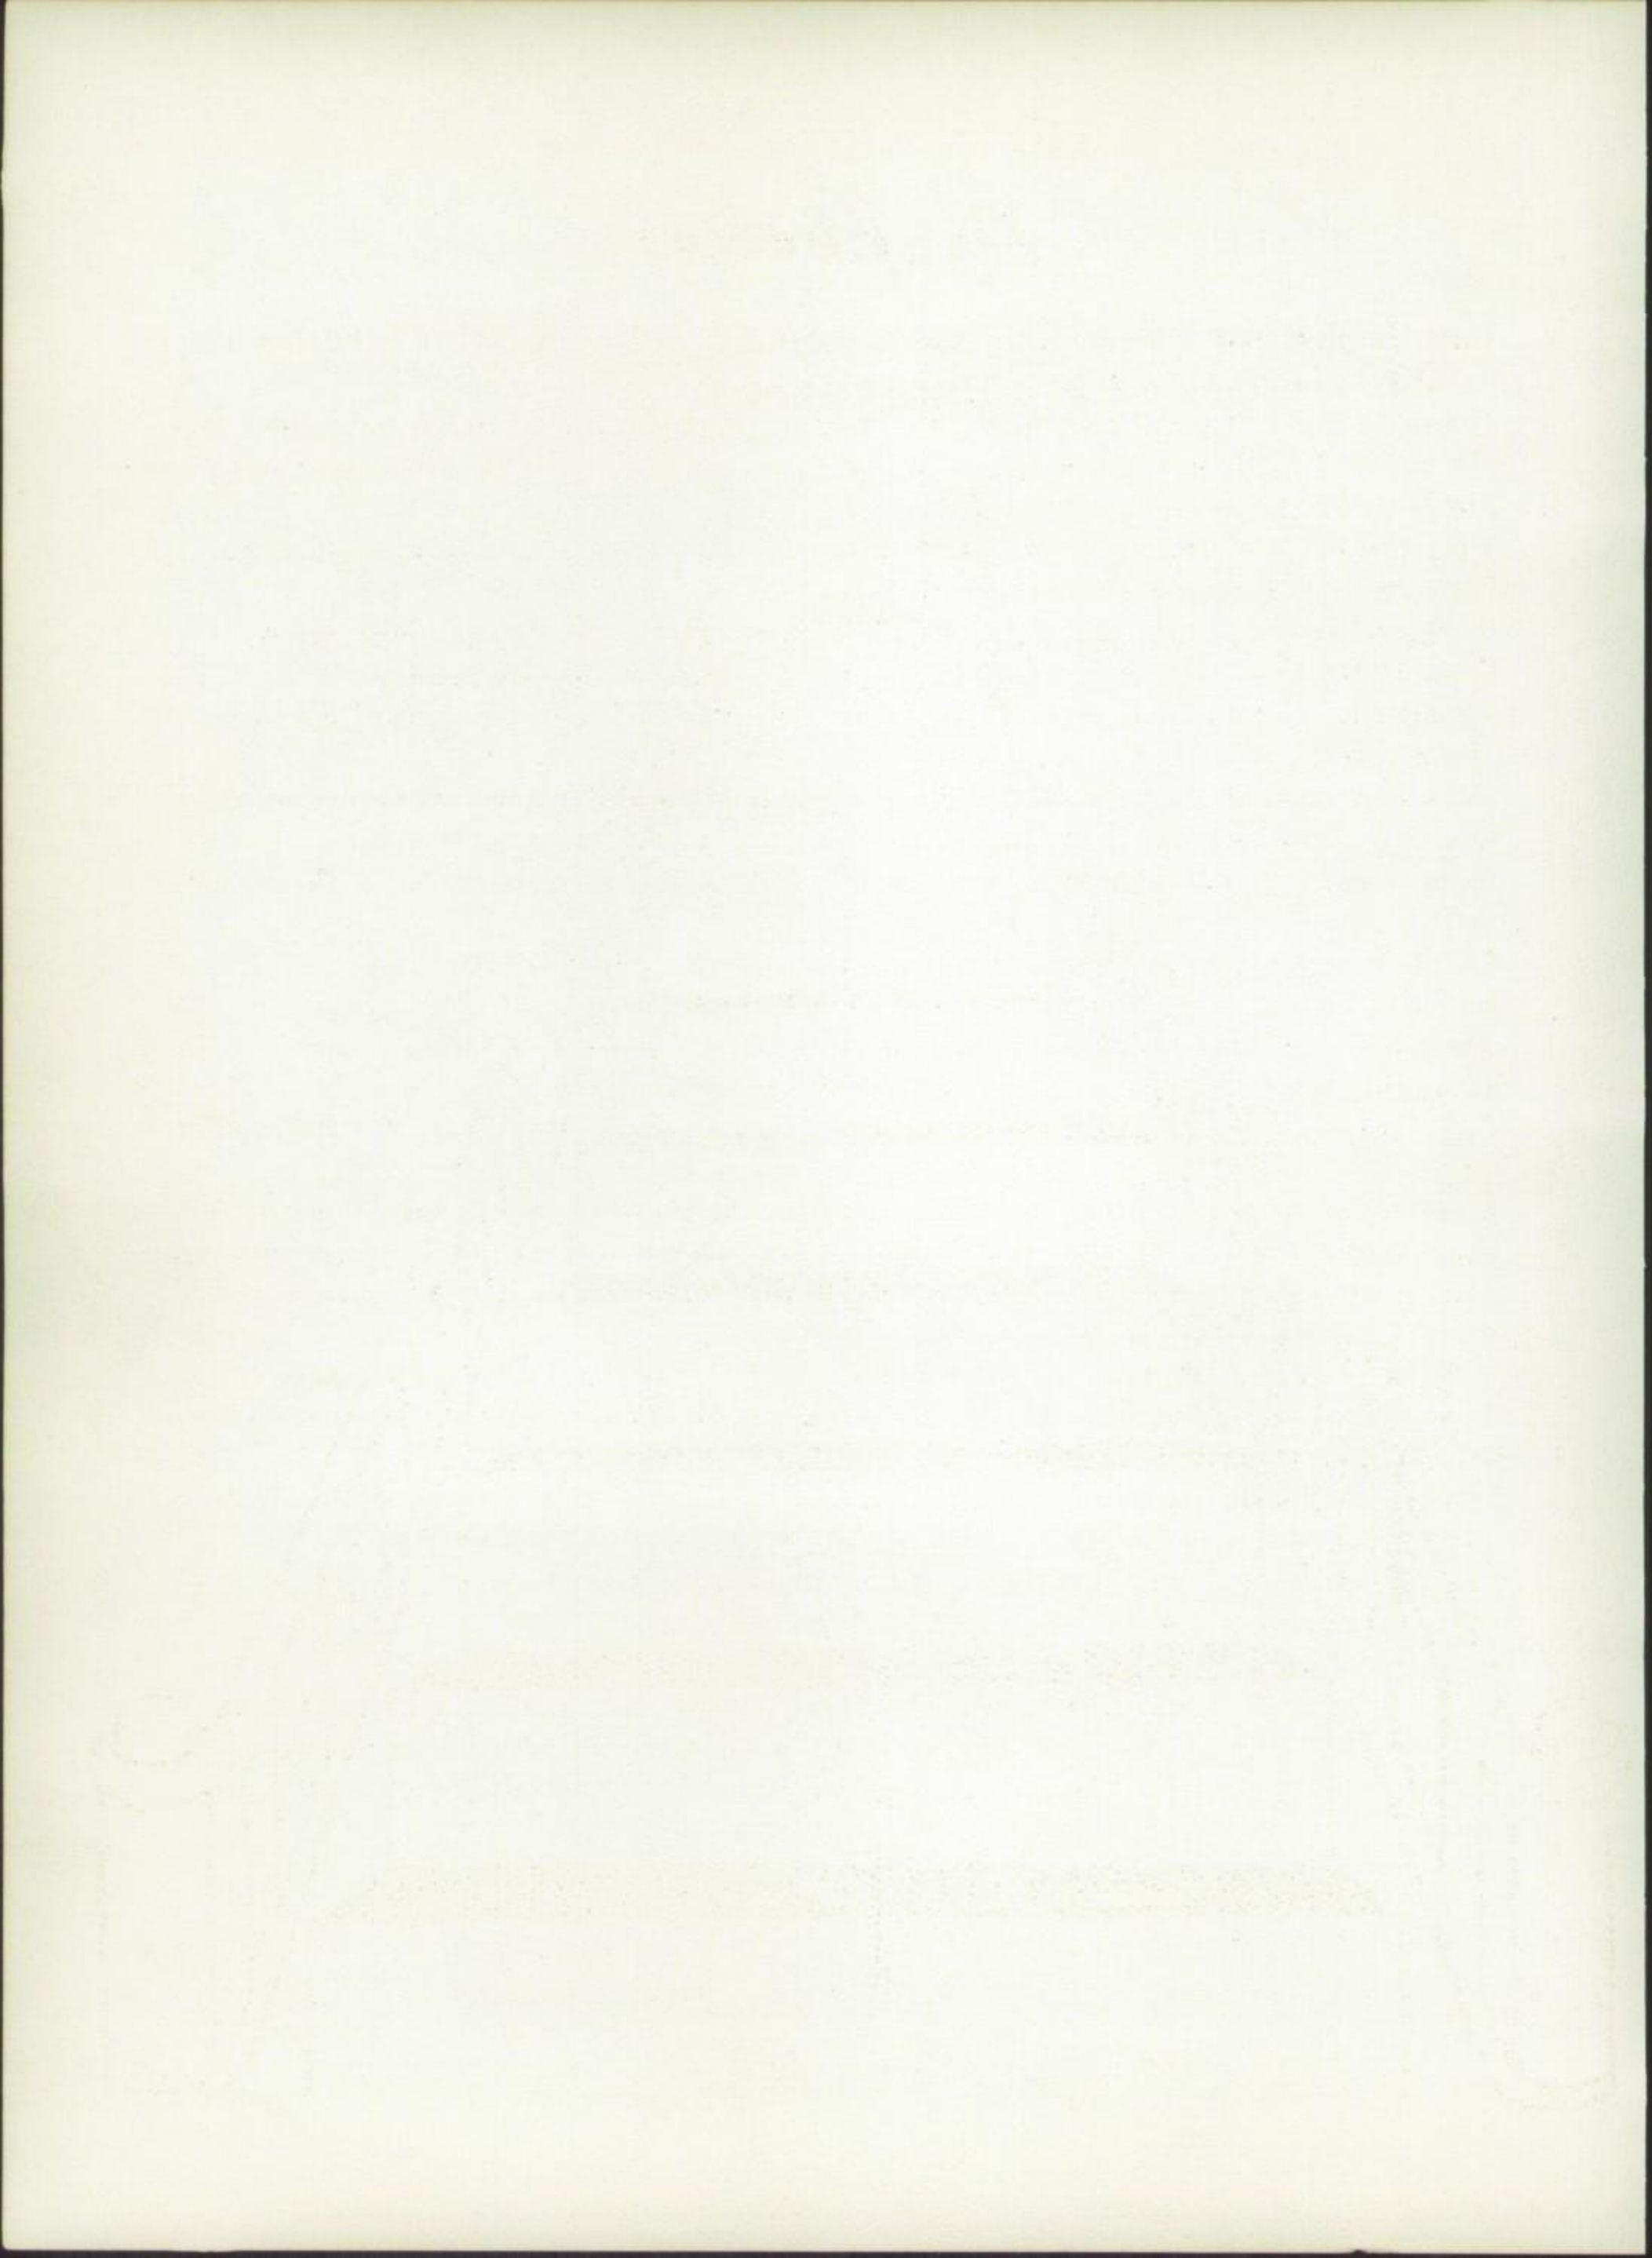

Nancy Heintz is enjoying teaching on an Indian reservation.

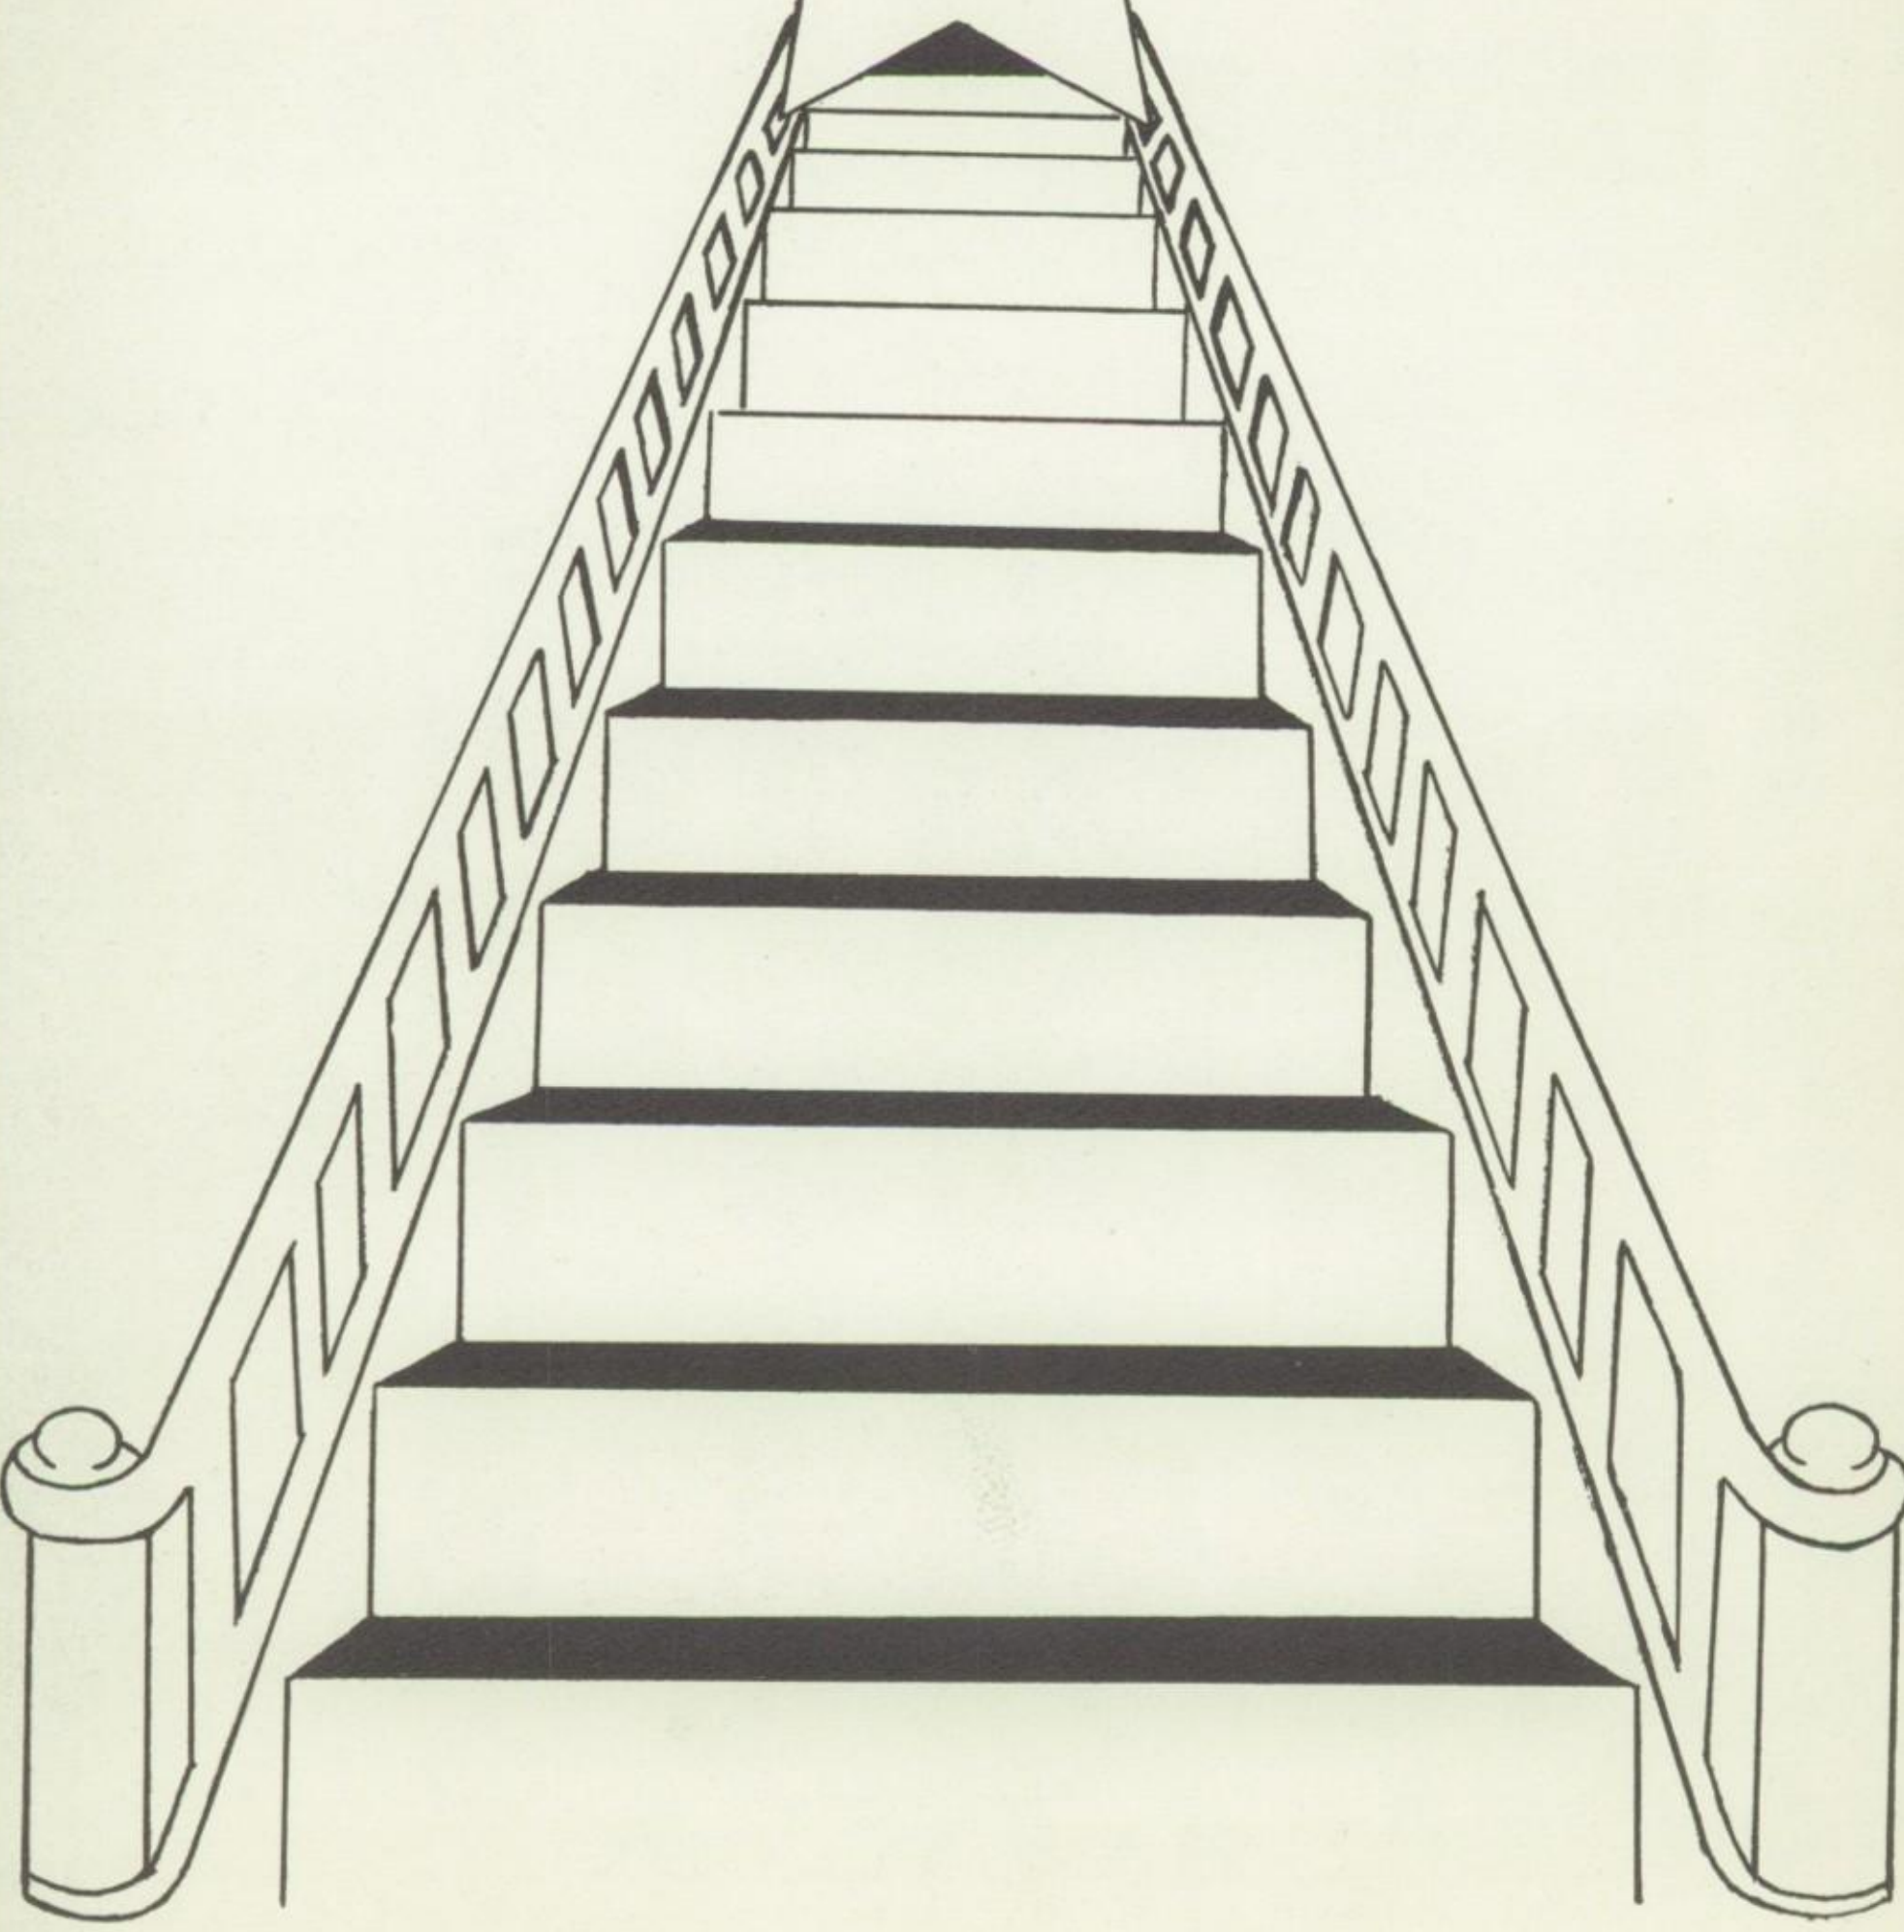

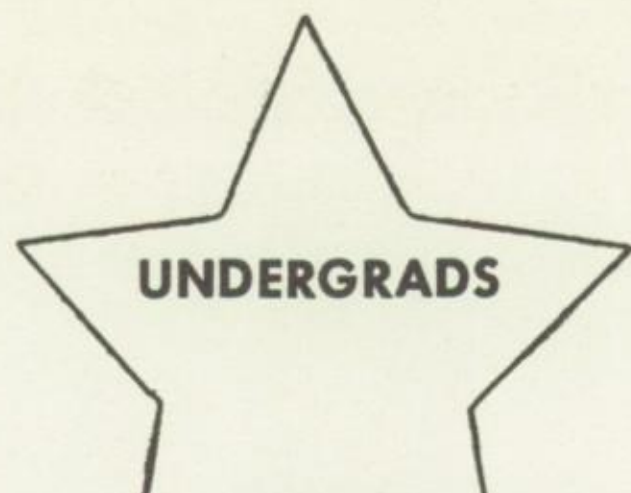

Dick Miller's and Dave Detrick's D and D basketball team is doing quite well this year. In fact, it is predicted that they will be the international champions this year.

David Smith is now head of his own construction company which is now working in Africa.

How could all this be possible? There is only one way--by imagination.
